

Theatre in Germany

IN SHORT

- Art house
- history of politics
- East Germany

Cinemas:

- Kino Babylon
- Lichtblick Kino

Theatre troupe:

- Berliner Ensemble
- Video Company
- Kino International

Kino Babylon

- Cinema
 - Opened as a silent film cinema
 - Mitte neighborhood of Berlin
 - East Germany
 - Renovated, now an arthouse cinema
-
- Rosa-Luxemburg-Straße 30, 10178 Berlin, Germany
 - 23 minutes by S-Bahn

Lichtblick Kino

- Independent program cinema
 - Another art house cinema
 - 32 seats, one screen
 - Berlin films with English subtitles!
 - Often invites filmmakers to the showings
-
- Kastanienallee 77, 10435 Berlin, Germany
 - 26 minutes by S-Bahn & one M-1 Train

Kino International Berliner Ensemble

- A film and video distributor, opened in 1963
 - specializes in art house films
 - Released M + Metropolis,
 - The Berlin wall fell during one of the showings
 - They host the oldest queer film series in Germany

 - Karl-Marx-Allee 33, 10178 Berlin, Germany
 - 19 minutes by S-Bahn + U-Bahn
- established by actress Helene Weigel and Bertolt Brecht
 - Founded in 1949 originally without a house
 - In 1954 it took over The Theater am Schiffbauerdamm
 - "Has always dealt with current, socially relevant issues"

 - Bertolt-Brecht-Platz 1, 10117 Berlin, Germany
 - 15 minutes by S-Bahn

don't get lost, you're doing great
<3

